

Your Home insurance policy has changed

What you need to know:

- We have updated your Home insurance.
- Continuing to insure with us means you accept these changes.

What you need to do:

- Read this notice and ensure the cover still meets your needs.
- Please read any additional notices we have sent you.
- Please read your policy document to review the changes in full before you renew your policy.
- Keep this notice with your schedule and policy document.
- Contact us if anything is not correct or you have any questions.

Updates to existing covers

We have moved the following endorsements from the policy schedule to the policy document:

- Changes to premium condition.
- Cyber loss limited exclusion for property covers.

The wording for the Cyber loss exclusion has been simplified. Its purpose remains the same, to exclude scenarios such as computer virus, hacking, malfunction or user error.

During the pandemic we temporarily provided cover for office contents which you are responsible for at your home. This cover enhancement has now been permanently added to your policy document.

Summary of new changes

Cover	Your old policy	Your new Home insurance
General
Definitions – Buildings.	Your policy included a definition for buildings.	The buildings definition now includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ garden offices and garden rooms;</li> <li>▪ electrical vehicle charging points;</li> <li>▪ air and ground source heat pumps; and</li> <li>▪ brick built barbecues and children's slides and swing sets.</li> </ul>
Cancellation condition.	Your policy includes a cancellation condition that gives us the right to cancel the policy for a valid reason by giving you 14 days' written notice.	We have added an additional example of when we may cancel your policy; failure to comply with the Preventing loss and damage condition. This requires you to maintain your property in good condition and repair.
