Fine art and collections

What is covered

This section covers loss or damage to your fine art, antiques and/or collections on either an Agreed Value or Market Value basis, as stated in your schedule, and any resultant depreciation.

How much you will be insured for

Agreed value

The value agreed by you and us, this will be based on a recent expert valuation arranged by you. This will be used as the basis for any claims settlement.

Market value

The price a willing buyer would pay for the item(s) immediately prior to the loss, taking into account the state of the market for goods of that type and the size and condition of the goods.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to include:

- New acquisitions: we allow you up to 60 days to notify us following the acquisition of a new item. From the time you acquire the item until the date you tell us about it, we will provide cover up to 10% of the total sum insured or £250,000, whichever is the lower, for any one claim.
- Defective title: the cost of defence or payment of damages if an item covered has a defective or no title. We will pay up to £500,000 for all claims (including legal costs) in any one period of insurance. If you wish to relinquish possession of the item, we will pay the amount you paid for it.
- Restoration and framing: the cost of repair and any reduction in value if an item is damaged by a professional restorer. We will pay up to the value of the item.
- Work in progress: if a commissioned work cannot be completed due to the artist's death or is damaged before completion, we will pay for relevant costs you have incurred, up to £30,000 in the aggregate in the period of insurance.
- Temporary removal: cover is provided for items removed from the premises for a temporary period (not exceeding 90 days). We will pay up to £5,000,000 or the sum insured for art, whichever is the less; £15,000 for all claims in the period of insurance for jewellery/watches/furs; £10,000 for theft from an unattended vehicle, provided that the vehicle is locked, alarmed and the property is out of sight in a locked boot or compartment.
- Emergency evacuation: the reasonable cost of moving items to and from your premises and keeping them in secure storage due to unoccupancy of your premises, following sudden loss or damage to your premises or a statutory or regulatory body prohibiting occupancy of your premises.

What is not covered

Terrorism (this section is optional)

What is covered

This optional section provides cover for damage to your property and (should you choose) resulting loss of income insured under other sections of this policy following an Act of Terrorism.

An Act of Terrorism is defined as acts of persons acting on behalf of or in connection with any organisation which carries out activities directed towards the overthrowing or influencing by force or violence of Her Majesty's government in the United Kingdom or any other government de jure or de facto.

Cover applies in England, Wales and Scotland but not the territorial seas adjacent thereto as defined by the Territorial Sea Act 1987.

Cover is provided up to the sum insured that you provide us with.

Optional cover – Non-damage Business interruption

If you decide to include the terrorism section, you may also choose to cover loss of income as a result of a terrorist event that does not involve physical damage to property. Contact us for more information.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 2 Terrorism and General exclusions for full details.

- Riot, civil commotion or war.
- Computer virus, hacking or phishing.

Things for you to think about

- Terrorism events are unpredictable and are not confined to major cities. The property damage and loss of income sections do not include cover for terrorism so you should consider adding this cover to your policy.
- If you choose to add cover for terrorism you must ensure that all of the property you are responsible for is insured for terrorism regardless of whether it is insured by us. Contact us or your broker to discuss this further.
